THE NEW FRENCH PUSSY WILLOWS

(Salix Caprea)

They grow as a hardy shrub or dwarf tree. Cut the branches anytime in December, January or February and put them in a vase of water. They bloom quickly.

Large, soft, beautiful pearl-gray blossoms, "catkins," often one to two inches long. Sometimes they have a pinkish tint that makes them especially effective and decorative in winter bouquets.

When they are in full bloom they may be removed from the water and will remain fresh and lovely for months.

(PRIZE COLLECTION)

Planting Directions: Set the bulbs 4 inches deep and 2 inches apart in the rows; rows 12 inches apart. Beds do well planted 4 to 6 inches apart each way.

This year we have added many new and very rare colors to our already famous PRIZE COLLECTION MIXTURE and all customers who plant this mixture will be amazed at the gorgeous display of shades, colors and tints and the wonderfully large spikes of large blooms which it will produce. This mixture is composed of a selection of named varieties but sent to you not labeled; many of the varieties are high-priced and to move our stock in this year of low prices we have put them all into a mixture which can be offered at a price to move them. They are all nice large bulbs, guaranteed to bloom this year—not bulblets or under-sized bulbs. You can't afford to overlook this collection at the price.

PRICE (Plump blooming-size bulbs):

12 for 40c; 25 for 70c; 50 for $1.30; 100 for $2.50 Postpaid
